

THE Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, June 4, 1875
STATE NEWS.

A military company is forming in Shelby to bear the name of "Old Cleveland Guards."

Passengers going West on the N. C. R. R. will get supper in Raleigh under the new schedule.

There are 220 Masonic Lodges in active operation in the State, with a membership of 11,126.

The Supreme Council of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion, S. C. June 28, 1875.

Durham is to have a daily, to be called the "Durham Daily Times," with H. C. Richardson as Editor.

Petified hickory found forty feet below the surface in excavating for the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad.

Six Professors of the new State University will be elected at the meeting of the trustees on the 19th of June.

Mary Long, the North Carolina mare won the sweepstakes at Charlotte on Wednesday.

There are in the county of Pitt five corporate towns and all except Greenville elected Democrats to fill their town offices.

At the Mecklenburg Centennial the Northern band played the Mecklenburg Polka, composed specially for the occasion by a member of the band.

A District Convention of the I. O. G. T. was held in Wilson on the 20th instant but was postponed until the 15th June, proximo.

George Boddie, born May 16, 1807, in North county, North Carolina, died on the 10th day of May, 1875, at his residence in Hinds county, Miss.

United States Circuit court for the Eastern District of North Carolina convenes in Raleigh on the first Monday in next month, Judges Bond and Brooks presiding.

The Mecklenburg Centennial was celebrated in Nashville, Tennessee, with great enthusiasm. Eloquent speeches were made by Ex-Gov. Neil, Gov. Porter and others.

Rev. Father McNamara, formerly of Raleigh, is about to commence the publication of a paper in New York under the title of "The Celtic Nation."

The Conservative Democrats of Pitt will meet in convention to solicit candidates for the State Convention on 20th June. Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, will probably be one of the candidates.

The people of Brunswick, Va., are agitating the question of rebuilding the bridge at Gaston, and thus restoring a direct communication between the R. & G. Road and Petersburg.

A well written sketch, by Major Barrow, an admiring friend, of the late Miss Dimock, M. D., lost in the wreck of the Schiller, appears in the last number of the Washington Echo.

The Durham Tobacco Plant rises to correct a correspondent of the New York Herald who says Gen. Joseph E. Johnston surrendered to Sherman in Charlotte. He surrendered four miles from Durham.

Raleigh Sentinel: A strapping young farmer can be found in this county, who yesterday morning, the 17th of May, 1875, wrote his name in the frost on his plantation.

There is now living in Northampton county, N. C., a well-known lady, who can number nearly one hundred living children and grandchildren. She has lived to behold the fourth generation of her own offspring.

In Rowan county, a man named Mosier murdered his mother-in-law, a lady named Heilig, by knocking her in the head with an axe. He then threw her in a well. The murdered woman was seventy years old.

Christ Church in Newbern was consecrated on Sunday, by Judge Atkinson and Lyman and a large number of the attendants to the Episcopal Convention last week, being present on the occasion.

Charlotte Democrat says: Even farming lands in this section are enhanced in value at least 100 per cent by the celebration and widespread notoriety given Charlotte and Mecklenburg county.

Eight thousand dollars has been pledged by private subscription for the purpose of reviving the University. Mr. Kemp P. Battle, of Raleigh, will receive all amounts, and a strong effort is making to have a large donation by old students as possible.

Says the Charlotte Observer of Saturday morning: "We understand that one of the counsel in a case which is to be tried to-day, will argue the jury law unconstitutional, so far as concerns its application to National Banks."

Gov. Vance was on the platform at Charlotte on Thursday that fell to the ground, carrying with it a large number of frightened but unharmed people. As the Governor arose from a pile of shattered plank he remarked that he never failed to "bring down the house."

Under a recent decision of Attorney General T. L. Hargrove, all National Banks doing business in the State are required to file with the Secretary of State an annual statement of their assets and liabilities under the same ruling as is applied to Insurance Companies.

The Washington Echo learns from its Pamlico correspondent that the corn and cotton crops of the county have been well high destroyed by the recent cold spells. He states that about two-thirds of all the cotton and one-third of all the corn under cultivation is a complete loss.

Winston Sentinel says—The most dignified sight presented to our citizens this week was Judge Cloud making an assault upon a negro and throwing a stick and a few curse words at him. The offense of this ward of the nation was singing a camp-meeting song in hearing of his honor.

Table with 4 columns: Advertisements, Rates, and other details. Includes rates for various types of ads and subscription information.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The young gentlemen of the County attending Military Academies are home for the Summer holidays.

A GOOD LAW.—The act of the Board of Commissioners in prohibiting after July 1st hogs from running at large in the corporate limits of the town is a good law.

ROOF PAINT.—Read the advertisement of T. E. Lewis, Agent for "Gline's Slate Paint." Prominent men throughout the country have used it and pronounce it excellent.

THE WAREHOUSE.—The brick yard at the site of the new Warehouse at Rocky Mount is finished and work on the brick has been commenced. The contractor seems to be working in earnest.—Mail.

FISHING.—Owing to the extremely dull times our merchants have been indulging for the past week in the art of pulling out perch at Noble's Mill Pond.

CAFE J. D. CUMMINGS.—Our esteemed former townsmen is now permanently located in Marion S. C. His loss as a citizen is deeply felt. We wish him much success in his new home.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion S. C. June 28th. Mr. H. A. Walker, of this place, will represent the State Council. He leaves Monday.

FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of Tarboro' Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1 at the Court House Monday night. Important business will be transacted. A full attendance desired.

We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

O. C. FARRAR & CO. We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

UNUSUAL.—We would modestly remind the Board of Town Commissioners that printed notices of the "hog law" would have been cheaper than the clerical labor employed to write them, besides being three more legible. Rather unusual, gentlemen.

Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer a single man, has discovered that bustles are made of old papers, and being twitted over it by an exchange, says:

"We don't believe everything we hear but we've been a journalist long enough to know the sound of a newspaper when we hear it rattle."

Maj. L. H. Hunt, Inspector of Wilcox's Division in the Confederate army, and a favorite officer of the late General Lee, has returned from Alabama and intends to remain in the good Old North State.—Hillsboro Recorder.

JEROMS TO THE FEDERAL COURT.—We learn from the Deputy U. S. Marshal that Messrs. Wm. S. Battle, F. L. Bond and Jno. W. White, of this county, have been summoned as jurors to attend the Federal Court, which convenes in Raleigh next week.

GREEN APPLES.—Dr. Manning, senior editor of the Roanoke News, was out in last issue in a half column editorial warning his reader of the approach of the green apple season, giving them wholesome advice.

THANKS.—Mr. W. D. Bryan will accept our thanks for a basket of strawberries yesterday. They were the finest we have had this season and were very much enjoyed. Do us so again, Dempsy?

VANCE'S SKETCHES.—We have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of Vance's Sketches of North Carolina, published by James Barron Hope & Co., in pamphlet form. The book is charmingly written and interesting from beginning to end.

ONE WORD FOR US.—Having purchased the most improved machinery for the special purpose, we are prepared to compete with any office in this section in job work both as regards low prices and good execution. Send in your orders.

TARBORO' TOWNSHIP.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Conservative party of Tarboro' Township at the Court House on Monday night June 7th for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention which meets 15th June.

COMPLAINTS.—During the past two weeks numerous complaints have reached us of a failure on the part of subscribers in not receiving their paper. A paper is sent from this office every week to each subscriber and with that duty is done. The fault is with the Post Master. Get after him.

PUBLIC ADDRESSES.—Our grant friends will remember that public addresses will be delivered at Sparta by prominent members of the order on the 17th inst. to which the public is cordially invited. We hope to be on hand.

FESTIVAL.—The Friends of Temperance will celebrate their third anniversary with an Ice-cream and Strawberry Festival to-night. Those who feel disposed will also "trip the light fantastic." An enjoyable time is anticipated.

MARKET HOUSE.—The Board of Town Commissioners have abolished the act of the last board prohibiting the selling of slaughtered meats in the town between certain hours.

At their last meeting, they also turned over the Market House for the use of the Hook & Ladder and the Engine Companies. A good idea.

THE UNIVERSITY.—Over $3000.00 have been subscribed by citizens of the county to aid in the re-establishment of the University of North Carolina. The gentlemen who have the books of subscription in charge are confident of raising $5000.00. Next week we will give the names of those who have subscribed thus far.

NEW POLICE.—Tuesday being the first of the month, the new police went on duty. John W. Cotton, Esq., succeeds Mr. J. B. Hyatt as Constable. The policemen are: William T. Hurtt and John Madra, white, and Altimore Macnamar and James E. Simonson, colored. Evil doers would do well to look sharp. Things are different now. The law will be rigidly enforced.

VIA WELDON.—Captain Robert Bridges of Chattanooga, Tenn., son of Mr. R. R. Bridges, of the W. & W. R. R., was through this place last Thursday returning from a trip to Baltimore. Bob was looking well and seemed to be pleased with his trip. He is assistant superintendent of an important road out there.—Roanoke News.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The young gentlemen of the County attending Military Academies are home for the Summer holidays.

A GOOD LAW.—The act of the Board of Commissioners in prohibiting after July 1st hogs from running at large in the corporate limits of the town is a good law.

ROOF PAINT.—Read the advertisement of T. E. Lewis, Agent for "Gline's Slate Paint." Prominent men throughout the country have used it and pronounce it excellent.

THE WAREHOUSE.—The brick yard at the site of the new Warehouse at Rocky Mount is finished and work on the brick has been commenced. The contractor seems to be working in earnest.—Mail.

FISHING.—Owing to the extremely dull times our merchants have been indulging for the past week in the art of pulling out perch at Noble's Mill Pond.

CAFE J. D. CUMMINGS.—Our esteemed former townsmen is now permanently located in Marion S. C. His loss as a citizen is deeply felt. We wish him much success in his new home.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion S. C. June 28th. Mr. H. A. Walker, of this place, will represent the State Council. He leaves Monday.

FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of Tarboro' Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1 at the Court House Monday night. Important business will be transacted. A full attendance desired.

We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

O. C. FARRAR & CO. We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

UNUSUAL.—We would modestly remind the Board of Town Commissioners that printed notices of the "hog law" would have been cheaper than the clerical labor employed to write them, besides being three more legible. Rather unusual, gentlemen.

Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer a single man, has discovered that bustles are made of old papers, and being twitted over it by an exchange, says:

"We don't believe everything we hear but we've been a journalist long enough to know the sound of a newspaper when we hear it rattle."

Maj. L. H. Hunt, Inspector of Wilcox's Division in the Confederate army, and a favorite officer of the late General Lee, has returned from Alabama and intends to remain in the good Old North State.—Hillsboro Recorder.

JEROMS TO THE FEDERAL COURT.—We learn from the Deputy U. S. Marshal that Messrs. Wm. S. Battle, F. L. Bond and Jno. W. White, of this county, have been summoned as jurors to attend the Federal Court, which convenes in Raleigh next week.

GREEN APPLES.—Dr. Manning, senior editor of the Roanoke News, was out in last issue in a half column editorial warning his reader of the approach of the green apple season, giving them wholesome advice.

THANKS.—Mr. W. D. Bryan will accept our thanks for a basket of strawberries yesterday. They were the finest we have had this season and were very much enjoyed. Do us so again, Dempsy?

VANCE'S SKETCHES.—We have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of Vance's Sketches of North Carolina, published by James Barron Hope & Co., in pamphlet form. The book is charmingly written and interesting from beginning to end.

ONE WORD FOR US.—Having purchased the most improved machinery for the special purpose, we are prepared to compete with any office in this section in job work both as regards low prices and good execution. Send in your orders.

TARBORO' TOWNSHIP.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Conservative party of Tarboro' Township at the Court House on Monday night June 7th for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention which meets 15th June.

COMPLAINTS.—During the past two weeks numerous complaints have reached us of a failure on the part of subscribers in not receiving their paper. A paper is sent from this office every week to each subscriber and with that duty is done. The fault is with the Post Master. Get after him.

PUBLIC ADDRESSES.—Our grant friends will remember that public addresses will be delivered at Sparta by prominent members of the order on the 17th inst. to which the public is cordially invited. We hope to be on hand.

FESTIVAL.—The Friends of Temperance will celebrate their third anniversary with an Ice-cream and Strawberry Festival to-night. Those who feel disposed will also "trip the light fantastic." An enjoyable time is anticipated.

MARKET HOUSE.—The Board of Town Commissioners have abolished the act of the last board prohibiting the selling of slaughtered meats in the town between certain hours.

At their last meeting, they also turned over the Market House for the use of the Hook & Ladder and the Engine Companies. A good idea.

THE UNIVERSITY.—Over $3000.00 have been subscribed by citizens of the county to aid in the re-establishment of the University of North Carolina. The gentlemen who have the books of subscription in charge are confident of raising $5000.00. Next week we will give the names of those who have subscribed thus far.

NEW POLICE.—Tuesday being the first of the month, the new police went on duty. John W. Cotton, Esq., succeeds Mr. J. B. Hyatt as Constable. The policemen are: William T. Hurtt and John Madra, white, and Altimore Macnamar and James E. Simonson, colored. Evil doers would do well to look sharp. Things are different now. The law will be rigidly enforced.

VIA WELDON.—Captain Robert Bridges of Chattanooga, Tenn., son of Mr. R. R. Bridges, of the W. & W. R. R., was through this place last Thursday returning from a trip to Baltimore. Bob was looking well and seemed to be pleased with his trip. He is assistant superintendent of an important road out there.—Roanoke News.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The young gentlemen of the County attending Military Academies are home for the Summer holidays.

A GOOD LAW.—The act of the Board of Commissioners in prohibiting after July 1st hogs from running at large in the corporate limits of the town is a good law.

ROOF PAINT.—Read the advertisement of T. E. Lewis, Agent for "Gline's Slate Paint." Prominent men throughout the country have used it and pronounce it excellent.

THE WAREHOUSE.—The brick yard at the site of the new Warehouse at Rocky Mount is finished and work on the brick has been commenced. The contractor seems to be working in earnest.—Mail.

FISHING.—Owing to the extremely dull times our merchants have been indulging for the past week in the art of pulling out perch at Noble's Mill Pond.

CAFE J. D. CUMMINGS.—Our esteemed former townsmen is now permanently located in Marion S. C. His loss as a citizen is deeply felt. We wish him much success in his new home.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion S. C. June 28th. Mr. H. A. Walker, of this place, will represent the State Council. He leaves Monday.

FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of Tarboro' Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1 at the Court House Monday night. Important business will be transacted. A full attendance desired.

We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

O. C. FARRAR & CO. We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

UNUSUAL.—We would modestly remind the Board of Town Commissioners that printed notices of the "hog law" would have been cheaper than the clerical labor employed to write them, besides being three more legible. Rather unusual, gentlemen.

Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer a single man, has discovered that bustles are made of old papers, and being twitted over it by an exchange, says:

"We don't believe everything we hear but we've been a journalist long enough to know the sound of a newspaper when we hear it rattle."

Maj. L. H. Hunt, Inspector of Wilcox's Division in the Confederate army, and a favorite officer of the late General Lee, has returned from Alabama and intends to remain in the good Old North State.—Hillsboro Recorder.

JEROMS TO THE FEDERAL COURT.—We learn from the Deputy U. S. Marshal that Messrs. Wm. S. Battle, F. L. Bond and Jno. W. White, of this county, have been summoned as jurors to attend the Federal Court, which convenes in Raleigh next week.

GREEN APPLES.—Dr. Manning, senior editor of the Roanoke News, was out in last issue in a half column editorial warning his reader of the approach of the green apple season, giving them wholesome advice.

THANKS.—Mr. W. D. Bryan will accept our thanks for a basket of strawberries yesterday. They were the finest we have had this season and were very much enjoyed. Do us so again, Dempsy?

VANCE'S SKETCHES.—We have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of Vance's Sketches of North Carolina, published by James Barron Hope & Co., in pamphlet form. The book is charmingly written and interesting from beginning to end.

ONE WORD FOR US.—Having purchased the most improved machinery for the special purpose, we are prepared to compete with any office in this section in job work both as regards low prices and good execution. Send in your orders.

TARBORO' TOWNSHIP.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Conservative party of Tarboro' Township at the Court House on Monday night June 7th for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention which meets 15th June.

COMPLAINTS.—During the past two weeks numerous complaints have reached us of a failure on the part of subscribers in not receiving their paper. A paper is sent from this office every week to each subscriber and with that duty is done. The fault is with the Post Master. Get after him.

PUBLIC ADDRESSES.—Our grant friends will remember that public addresses will be delivered at Sparta by prominent members of the order on the 17th inst. to which the public is cordially invited. We hope to be on hand.

FESTIVAL.—The Friends of Temperance will celebrate their third anniversary with an Ice-cream and Strawberry Festival to-night. Those who feel disposed will also "trip the light fantastic." An enjoyable time is anticipated.

MARKET HOUSE.—The Board of Town Commissioners have abolished the act of the last board prohibiting the selling of slaughtered meats in the town between certain hours.

At their last meeting, they also turned over the Market House for the use of the Hook & Ladder and the Engine Companies. A good idea.

THE UNIVERSITY.—Over $3000.00 have been subscribed by citizens of the county to aid in the re-establishment of the University of North Carolina. The gentlemen who have the books of subscription in charge are confident of raising $5000.00. Next week we will give the names of those who have subscribed thus far.

NEW POLICE.—Tuesday being the first of the month, the new police went on duty. John W. Cotton, Esq., succeeds Mr. J. B. Hyatt as Constable. The policemen are: William T. Hurtt and John Madra, white, and Altimore Macnamar and James E. Simonson, colored. Evil doers would do well to look sharp. Things are different now. The law will be rigidly enforced.

VIA WELDON.—Captain Robert Bridges of Chattanooga, Tenn., son of Mr. R. R. Bridges, of the W. & W. R. R., was through this place last Thursday returning from a trip to Baltimore. Bob was looking well and seemed to be pleased with his trip. He is assistant superintendent of an important road out there.—Roanoke News.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The young gentlemen of the County attending Military Academies are home for the Summer holidays.

A GOOD LAW.—The act of the Board of Commissioners in prohibiting after July 1st hogs from running at large in the corporate limits of the town is a good law.

ROOF PAINT.—Read the advertisement of T. E. Lewis, Agent for "Gline's Slate Paint." Prominent men throughout the country have used it and pronounce it excellent.

THE WAREHOUSE.—The brick yard at the site of the new Warehouse at Rocky Mount is finished and work on the brick has been commenced. The contractor seems to be working in earnest.—Mail.

FISHING.—Owing to the extremely dull times our merchants have been indulging for the past week in the art of pulling out perch at Noble's Mill Pond.

CAFE J. D. CUMMINGS.—Our esteemed former townsmen is now permanently located in Marion S. C. His loss as a citizen is deeply felt. We wish him much success in his new home.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion S. C. June 28th. Mr. H. A. Walker, of this place, will represent the State Council. He leaves Monday.

FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of Tarboro' Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1 at the Court House Monday night. Important business will be transacted. A full attendance desired.

We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

O. C. FARRAR & CO. We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

UNUSUAL.—We would modestly remind the Board of Town Commissioners that printed notices of the "hog law" would have been cheaper than the clerical labor employed to write them, besides being three more legible. Rather unusual, gentlemen.

Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer a single man, has discovered that bustles are made of old papers, and being twitted over it by an exchange, says:

"We don't believe everything we hear but we've been a journalist long enough to know the sound of a newspaper when we hear it rattle."

Maj. L. H. Hunt, Inspector of Wilcox's Division in the Confederate army, and a favorite officer of the late General Lee, has returned from Alabama and intends to remain in the good Old North State.—Hillsboro Recorder.

JEROMS TO THE FEDERAL COURT.—We learn from the Deputy U. S. Marshal that Messrs. Wm. S. Battle, F. L. Bond and Jno. W. White, of this county, have been summoned as jurors to attend the Federal Court, which convenes in Raleigh next week.

GREEN APPLES.—Dr. Manning, senior editor of the Roanoke News, was out in last issue in a half column editorial warning his reader of the approach of the green apple season, giving them wholesome advice.

THANKS.—Mr. W. D. Bryan will accept our thanks for a basket of strawberries yesterday. They were the finest we have had this season and were very much enjoyed. Do us so again, Dempsy?

VANCE'S SKETCHES.—We have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of Vance's Sketches of North Carolina, published by James Barron Hope & Co., in pamphlet form. The book is charmingly written and interesting from beginning to end.

ONE WORD FOR US.—Having purchased the most improved machinery for the special purpose, we are prepared to compete with any office in this section in job work both as regards low prices and good execution. Send in your orders.

TARBORO' TOWNSHIP.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Conservative party of Tarboro' Township at the Court House on Monday night June 7th for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention which meets 15th June.

COMPLAINTS.—During the past two weeks numerous complaints have reached us of a failure on the part of subscribers in not receiving their paper. A paper is sent from this office every week to each subscriber and with that duty is done. The fault is with the Post Master. Get after him.

PUBLIC ADDRESSES.—Our grant friends will remember that public addresses will be delivered at Sparta by prominent members of the order on the 17th inst. to which the public is cordially invited. We hope to be on hand.

FESTIVAL.—The Friends of Temperance will celebrate their third anniversary with an Ice-cream and Strawberry Festival to-night. Those who feel disposed will also "trip the light fantastic." An enjoyable time is anticipated.

MARKET HOUSE.—The Board of Town Commissioners have abolished the act of the last board prohibiting the selling of slaughtered meats in the town between certain hours.

At their last meeting, they also turned over the Market House for the use of the Hook & Ladder and the Engine Companies. A good idea.

THE UNIVERSITY.—Over $3000.00 have been subscribed by citizens of the county to aid in the re-establishment of the University of North Carolina. The gentlemen who have the books of subscription in charge are confident of raising $5000.00. Next week we will give the names of those who have subscribed thus far.

NEW POLICE.—Tuesday being the first of the month, the new police went on duty. John W. Cotton, Esq., succeeds Mr. J. B. Hyatt as Constable. The policemen are: William T. Hurtt and John Madra, white, and Altimore Macnamar and James E. Simonson, colored. Evil doers would do well to look sharp. Things are different now. The law will be rigidly enforced.

VIA WELDON.—Captain Robert Bridges of Chattanooga, Tenn., son of Mr. R. R. Bridges, of the W. & W. R. R., was through this place last Thursday returning from a trip to Baltimore. Bob was looking well and seemed to be pleased with his trip. He is assistant superintendent of an important road out there.—Roanoke News.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The young gentlemen of the County attending Military Academies are home for the Summer holidays.

A GOOD LAW.—The act of the Board of Commissioners in prohibiting after July 1st hogs from running at large in the corporate limits of the town is a good law.

ROOF PAINT.—Read the advertisement of T. E. Lewis, Agent for "Gline's Slate Paint." Prominent men throughout the country have used it and pronounce it excellent.

THE WAREHOUSE.—The brick yard at the site of the new Warehouse at Rocky Mount is finished and work on the brick has been commenced. The contractor seems to be working in earnest.—Mail.

FISHING.—Owing to the extremely dull times our merchants have been indulging for the past week in the art of pulling out perch at Noble's Mill Pond.

CAFE J. D. CUMMINGS.—Our esteemed former townsmen is now permanently located in Marion S. C. His loss as a citizen is deeply felt. We wish him much success in his new home.

THE SUPREME COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance meets in Marion S. C. June 28th. Mr. H. A. Walker, of this place, will represent the State Council. He leaves Monday.

FIRE COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of Tarboro' Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1 at the Court House Monday night. Important business will be transacted. A full attendance desired.

We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

O. C. FARRAR & CO. We have just received a large stock of Philadelphia Made Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, best in the market. Neat styles very cheap for cash.

UNUSUAL.—We would modestly remind the Board of Town Commissioners that printed notices of the "hog law" would have been cheaper than the clerical labor employed to write them, besides being three more legible. Rather unusual, gentlemen.

Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer a single man, has discovered that bustles are made of old papers, and being twitted over it by an exchange, says:

"We don't believe everything we hear but we've been a journalist long enough to know the sound of a newspaper when we hear it rattle."

Maj. L. H. Hunt, Inspector of Wilcox's Division in the Confederate army, and a favorite officer of the late General Lee, has returned from Alabama and intends to remain in the good Old North State.—Hillsboro Recorder.

JEROMS TO THE FEDERAL COURT.—We learn from the Deputy U. S. Marshal that Messrs. Wm. S. Battle, F. L. Bond and Jno. W. White, of this county, have been summoned as jurors to attend the Federal Court, which convenes in Raleigh next week.

GREEN APPLES.—Dr. Manning, senior editor of the Roanoke News, was out in last issue in a half column editorial warning his reader of the approach of the green apple season, giving them wholesome advice.

THANKS.—Mr. W. D. Bryan will accept our thanks for a basket of strawberries yesterday. They were the finest we have had this season and were very much enjoyed. Do us so again, Dempsy?

VANCE'S SKETCHES.—We